We are permitted, says the Kennebec Journal, to make the following extract from a letter from Brigadier General F. S. Nickerson to Hon. B. M. Roberts, and some accompanying documents. They fully illustrate the workings of a system which aims to show an extreme reluctance to fight with and which enables white men to be sent to the front.

Headquarters 2d Brigade, 2d Division,
Honesboro, Pa. 21, 1863.

My Dear Sir—Desires of having the enclosed documents placed in a matter of internal policy, I send them to you, and if you think best, have them deposited in the Adjutant General's Office in Maine.

While reporting the 15th Maine last autumn, in New Orleans, I saw a man who was called Company C, in the 15th Maine, by the reporting officer of that company, without my personal knowledge. Some days after, I was called upon by the agent of a man who claimed him as a slave. I went with the agent and found him to be a white man, as was his son. Thereupon I required the proper proof that he was a slave, when the evidence presented was that the owner stated that the soldier was so white that a stranger would not know him from being a white man. I presented to the agent the order of the 15th Maine, but being at the time ordered to duty, I could not proceed.

You will notice in the bill of sale the certificate of the independence of the United States of America. Under such circumstances, ought we to return and take possession of such property? Asking United States officers to give back property, while the very cause of United States is actually threatened from the solemn instrument by which we claim our freedom.

You may see any of the facts as you please. I am, very respectfully,
S. NICKERSON.

To Hon. B. M. Roberts, Senator of Maine.

We omit the bill of sale of the negro, which describes "Charles" in full, and warrants him to be a mulatto and a slave for life.

The following is the demand for his surrender:

NEW ORLEANS, 23d June, 1862.

Colonel F. S. Nickerson, 14th Maine Regiment,
U. S. A. Lafayette Square.

Dear Sir—My slave Charles, a light mulatto, absconded last Tuesday, 10th inst. On Saturday, 1st inst. I was passing Lafayette Square, I found the said slave with a United States uniform, standing guard just above the Brooks house, on Camp street, colored as a United States soldier, claiming to be a white man, and I have the documents to prove him a slave. I have the documents to prove him a slave. I have the documents to prove him a slave.

Very respectfully,
F. S. NICKERSON, Captain, 74th Cavalry.

The above slave being of a very light color, it would be a difficult matter for a stranger to recognize him as a colored man.

B. DUNN, per E. W. Herriot.

General Butler issued the following order for his release, which, as appears above, was not obeyed.

Headquarters Dept. of the Gulf,
New Orleans, July 7, 1862.

Colonel Nickerson, 14th Maine Regiment—
Sir: It having been represented to the General Commanding the Department of the Gulf, (nearly written) by the name of Quinn, the property of B. DUNN, Esq., who will be recognized and pointed out by Mr. E. W. Herriot, you will forthwith discharge him. This is my order of the General Commanding.

This is by order Major General D. P. Butler.
Lieutenant D. H. Eng., A. A. M. Com.

The Montreal papers state that Hon. J. B. Giddings has been removed from his late attack that he was married to be removed from the late Senator Hall to the residence of Mr. Howe, U. S. Vice Consul.

The First Maine Cavalry Brigade—
Seven hundred Mounted Men have been assembled at Grand Gulf and are to be drilled in the First Mississippi Regiment.

The rebel army grown under the full general, seven thousand men, and over two hundred major generals and brigades.

Gen. Meade—The idea is current that this gallant soldier has resigned his military commission and will return into private life. This is not so; he has only resigned his command of the Irish brigade.

Irish advance from Fort Gibson (General Grant) captured two thousand five hundred, each carrying a rifle of 1850 square feet, and as high as the fort itself, and each containing by estimate, 40,000 pounds. The rebels, on expecting Grant to advance, and piling up the bomb in the woods, where our boys, when advancing found it.

The Charge on the 30th. According to the Augusta (Ga.) Courier, the rebels, who are a large gun crew in no time. The rebels have been got up by speculators, for their own advantage. They have purchased the crop from the farmers at a low price, with the view of selling at a higher price, at the time that the whole crop will not furnish the market supply.

The Forts correspondent of a London paper says: "A young lady passed off herself at the Forts a few days since in preparation for the degree of Bachelor of Science. The result of the Academy of Lyceum established the principle two years since of admitting women to take the degrees of bachelors of letters and sciences. An examination at the Forts in the morning, as there is not a woman present, a brilliant examination. Her education was extensive, but she was supported and encouraged by the commander of the college present. The announcement of her admission, among the new bachelors was hailed by a series of applauses from the entire assembly. Mr. M. L. Edwards personally congratulated Madame de Chateaufort on her success."

An Elegant Present. Major Dale, with his usual generosity, has presented Company A, State Guard, Bangor, Captain L. C. Moore, the first organization in the State with an elegant silk flag—one of the finest of the kind. The following is Major Dale's note which accompanied the flag, and the reply of Captain Moore, both of which indicate a patriotic devotion to our country and flag.

Bangor, May 10th, 1863.

Captain L. C. Moore:

Dear Sir—You will do me the pleasure to accept, in behalf of Company A, a new uniform, an appropriate "silk flag" for their use.

It will require no pledge from you, Sir, nor from the members of the company, that they will wear the uniform and carry the flag, but I am sure that every man of the company will be proud to do so.

On the contrary, that every day will be brightened, and every duty made sacred, by an increased love of country and flag, and a devoted loyalty to the Union as it was.

Truly yours,
Samuel H. Dale, Major.

Amherst May 12th, 1863.

Bangor, May 12th, 1863.

Hon. S. A. Dale:

Dear Sir—It affords me great pleasure, in behalf of Company A, State Guard, under your command, to accept the very beautiful American flag you have so generously donated.

While standing for the flag, I am sure that you have made a noble sacrifice, and that the flag will be a source of pride and honor to the company.

I am sure that the flag will be a source of pride and honor to the company.
